OPEN SUSHI FORMULA CONDITION

The choice of the Open Sushi menu is valid only if made by the whole table. The highlighted dishes are excluded from Open Sushi formula: they can be separately ordered and counted with a discounted price different from the à la carte menu. Each person at the table can order up to 3 times, with a limit of 4 courses per order. The order of delivery of the dishes varies according to the preparation time of each single dish without distinction between starters, first and main courses. Any excess ordered with Open Sushi formula will be counted separately.

1 - It's possible to order only a portion of the category marked for each person
